

Book Club Questions – PAINT THE TOWN DEAD (Aurora Anderson #2)
Author: Sybil Johnson

1. PAINT THE TOWN DEAD features a character who has narcolepsy. How much did you know about this condition before you read the book? Did your impression of it change?
2. Have you ever attended a painting or craft convention or any convention at all? How did your experience differ from that in the book?
3. Were there times in the story that you disagreed with Rory's actions?
4. Did any of the characters remind you of yourself or someone you know?
5. Rory's mother owns a decorative painting/scrapbook supply store where some of the events in PAINT THE TOWN DEAD occur. Do you have any craft supply stores near you that are similar? Have you attended events there?
6. What was your favorite scene and why?
7. In the book there's a dispute among residents of Vista Beach regarding the construction of a hotel downtown. Has anything like that occurred in your own community?
8. Jasmine is one of Rory's childhood friends. Their relationship has changed over the years. Do you have any friends you've had for a long time? How has your relationship changed?
9. Discuss the relationship between Detective Green and Rory. How do you see it developing? How would you like it to develop?
10. Which characters would you like to learn more about?