

Book Club Questions – DESIGNED FOR HAUNTING (Aurora Anderson #4)
Author: Sybil Johnson

1. DESIGNED FOR HAUNTING starts with Rory receiving an email from a company that sends out messages after someone dies or doesn't respond for a period of time. Before reading the book, had you ever heard of such a company? Would you use their services? What would you do if you received such a message?
2. In the book, the town of Vista Beach is plagued by Halloween pranks. Has anything like that happened in your own community?
3. The book features some Halloween events such as a pumpkin race and a business-to-business trick or treat event. What Halloween events take place near you?
4. Did anything in the book surprise you?
5. The Halloween Holiday Boutique features an escape room. Before reading the story, had you ever heard of escape rooms or been to one? What was your experience like?
6. In the book, Rory's painting chapter holds a charity event. Have you ever been a part of a group that puts together a charity event? How did it differ from the one in DESIGNED FOR HAUNTING?
7. Raven Leek is a psychic. Have you ever visited a psychic? Do you believe in them?
8. Vista Beach has a legend involving a shipwreck and ghost child appearing near the pier. Does your own community have its own ghostly legend?
9. The painting chapter holds a costume party at the end of the boutique where some of the characters come in costume. What costume would wear for such a party?
10. What do you think of someone secretly placing a location app on someone else's phone?
